

APRIL 21st | LANSDALE, PA

INTERNATIONAL SPRING FESTIVAL 2018

"Americans Celebrating Their Heritage"

The 27th annual International Spring Festival is one of the largest FREE multi-cultural events in PA

Saturday, April 21 from 11:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

at the North Penn High School, 1340 S. Valley Forge Road, Lansdale, PA 19446.

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

- Multicultural art projects
- Food tasting from around the world
- Try on cultural/ceremonial costumes
- Face painting/Henna Tattoo
- Play instruments from around the world

ENTERTAINMENT

- Ethnic dance groups
- Music from around the world
- Free raffles and prizes
- Audience participation
- Outdoor activities
- ArcoNet Youth & Chamber Orchestra

HEALTH FAIR

- Free health screenings
- Healthcare exhibits
- Entertainer Sterlen Barr
- Interactive exercises
- Prevention education

INTERNATIONAL FOOD COURT

Over fifteen ethnic cuisines are available for purchase at the Festival's food court

NATIONALITY AND VENDORS' EXHIBITS

Travel the world in a day and view exhibits in the Main Gym area

PASSPORT PROGRAM

Kids learn facts about different countries and upon completion of their "passport".

FREE discount card to local businesses for veterans with photo ID.

OUR SPONSORS

United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey

OUR COMMUNITY PARTNERS

WWW.INTERNATIONALSPIRINGFESTIVAL.COM